You Look Like Me: The Story of b and p Linda Lee Ward

You Look Like Me; The Story of b and p identifies the concepts of “same” and “different”. The story introduces the letters b and p, letters that are frequently confused by new readers. In addition to these building blocks, the story touches on how letters are used to make words.

While taking a walk b and p discuss how they look very similar. They fail to see a log in their path and tumble down a hill. Their spill renders them jumbled and not quite sure who is who! They decide to use colors and words to help them solve the dilemma.
