The Central Committee of CPC proposed a policy in the Eleventh Five-year Plan, namely to build new socialist rural areas, and made it explicit that improved production, better-off livelihood, civilized rural atmosphere, clean environment and a democratic system of management should be set as the final goal of new socialist rural areas construction. To achieve this magnificent target, we need not only support of the government, investment, cultivation and adoption of human resource, but also relevant legal protection. And a great many subjects in terms of legal protection mechanism within building new socialist villages need researching urgently, such as rights and interests of land, social security, infrastructure construction and other hot-spot issues, among which, though, villagers’ right of autonomy should count the most.
