La oscuridad de los sueños (Criminal (roca)) (Spanish Edition) Michael Connelly

Jack McEvoy tiene los días contados como periodista de sucesos; sus momentos de gloria languidecen y su nombre se baraja en las listas de recortes previstos por Los Angeles Times. Sin embargo, guarda todavía un último cartucho: la redacción de la que pretende que sea la crónica criminal más impactante de su carrera. Para ese propósito, elige a Alonzo Winslow, un drogadicto de dieciséis años encarcelado tras confesar la autoría del asesinato de una joven hallada estrangulada en el maletero de un coche. Jack quiere escribir acerca de la negligencia y la injusticia social que convirtieron a Winslow en un asesino. Al adentrarse en la historia, descubre que la confesión del chico es falsa y sospecha que es inocente. Tras vincular el asesinato del maletero de Los Ángeles con otro acontecido en Las Vegas, McEvoy se ve ante el reportaje más espectacular de su carrera desde que el Poeta se cruzara con él años atrás. Una vieja amiga del pasado se une a la investigación; se trata de la agente del FBI, Rachel Walling. Juntos le pisarán los talones a un psicópata que lleva demasiado tiempo actuando a la sombra del radar del FBI y la policía.
