A Horse's View of the World (Pet Perspectives) Flora Brett

More than 9 million horses frolick in pastures around the United States. We ride them, use them to pull carriages, and do work on ranches. But do we really understand why horses behave the way they do? Give young readers a look at what it's like to see, smell, hear, and feel—all from a horse's point of view! In this eBook readers will discover how horses use their ears and sounds to communicate, why a spooked horse's first instinct is to run, and many more amazing facts about how horses view their world.
