The Actual One: How I Tried, and Failed, to Remain Twenty-Something Forever Isy Suttie

Isy Suttie has reached her thirties and realised her life is never going to be what she expected. She'll never become that tennis champion, be an expert in birdsong or make a living from playing pinball. As her friends begin to settle down to 'grown-up lives', will she get left behind? From goldfish-murdering mothers and housemates obsessed with VAT, to boyfriends who don't appreciate gifts of homemade human-sized penguins, Isy delves deep into the vaults of her experiences, writing with warmth, agonising honesty and sharp humour.
