Beyond Terminal: How One Belief Kept This Revivor Alive and Laughing! Chris Collins

Each year millions of people find themselves confronted by a word that is as frightening as it is hopeless: Terminal. When author Chris Collins heard it for the first time, her world came crashing down around her. Three months. Apparently she'd had her last Thanksgiving, and not even known it. As the magnitude of the news receded, Chris realized she wasn't willing to accept a death sentence she didn't believe in. After all, if her body had been well once it could learn to be healthy again. And in that defining moment, a Revivor was born. In this guide to striking our own path and taking control of our own destiny, Chris takes us on an inspiring, sometimes heart breaking, and often hilarious journey from the pits of terminal despair to total revitalization. Founded on practical advice and brutally honest anecdotes, "Revivor" is a beam of light for those facing their darkest hour, and an answer to seemingly impossible questions like, "If the hospital treatment fails, then what?". Allow Chris to share with you the bliss of self-belief, and the secret to transforming an expiration date into the start of a whole new beginning.
