Neoptólemo entre a cicatriz e a chaga: lógos sofístico, peithó e areté na tragédia filoctetes de sófocles (Portuguese Edition) Mateus Dagios

O livro é uma adaptação da sua dissertação de mestrado sobre a tragédia grega Filoctetes de Sófocles, o texto busca analisar como Sófocles problematiza para a pólis ateniense o lógos sofístico, a ambigüidade da figura do sofista e os efeitos de tal posição sobre os valores e os significados, em um conflito com os padrões éticos da areté. Examina-se como as personagens Odisseu, Filoctetes e Neoptólemo, na interação dos seus discursos, põem em discussão os poderes, as limitações e os usos dos discursos, em especial o persuasório, a peithó. Trabalha-se com a hipótese de que existe no texto trágico um conflito de visões de mundo e de significados e de que as diferentes posturas dos personagens frente ao lógos constituem representações de discursos antagônicos, pertencentes ao repertório cultural da cidade ateniense do último quarto do século V a.C.
